Dear Chris,

Enfield Grammar School Foundation

I am writing to you, on behalf of the Trustees of Enfield Grammar School Foundation, to ask you if you would be kind enough to let the Old Boys of Enfield Grammar School know what valuable support the Foundation (which is a registered Charity regulated by the Charity Commission) has been able to give to the education of Enfield Grammar School boys over and beyond the Government provisions, through bequests and legacies left to the Charitable Foundation for specific purposes, which have been, in many cases, defined by the donors themselves.

Recent examples include the Newman Legacy for Sports, which enabled, through match funding, the construction of the FIFA certified 3G pitch in partnership with the Football Foundation, and the Richard Kemp bequest for use in the teaching of Biology, which has enabled new Laboratory equipment to be purchased together with the planned refurbishment of rooms at the Lower School to provide a Laboratory for years 7 and 8, avoiding the need for boys to travel to the Upper School for practical lessons. The General Endowment fund has enabled the purchase of hot and cold food display units, together with safety barriers to improve catering provisions at the Upper School, while the Shelford Fund for buildings has enabled Architect fees to be paid to prepare bids for much needed roof replacements in the Science Block and Art Department. The bids to the Education Funding Agency were successful and the two new roofs were completed in the recent half term, after 6 months of restoration.

I hope it is helpful for Old Boys to see the valuable way in which such bequests are helping to enrich the education of Grammar Boys today, and to point out that such bequests are responsibly managed and accounted for by the Foundation Trustees with annual accounts inspected and published by the Charity Commission, as well as receiving the tax advantages of charitable status,

Thank you,

Paul Collard
